PETER WILEMAN FROI RSMA FRSA

Highly acclaimed landscape artist Peter Wileman FROI RSMA FRSA was born in Middlesex in 1946. Known for his dazzling abstracted oil landscapes, Wileman describes his relationship with painting as integral to his very existence. The artist gravitated toward painting from a young age, picking up his first brush in childhood. Wileman's early career saw him established as a fine designer and budding artist. Across the years Wileman developed into an accomplished and successful full-time artist, garnering national acclaim for his treatment of coastal scenes with bright punches of colour in semi-abstracted compositions. Peter continues to depict Britain's coves, harbours and iconic landscapes in oil, deploying a masterful understanding of light and atmosphere. The artist enjoys a longstanding relationship with Thompson's and his work is currently exhibited and collected internationally.
